Mac and Cheese Macaroni and Cheese are best friends, but they couldn't be more different! Written in the style of P.D. Eastman's classic Big Dog, Little Dog, this modern-day alley-cat odd couple will delight beginning readers. Age range 4–8 years

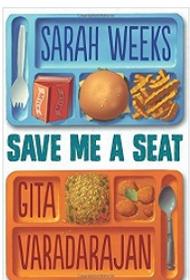

Without You A tender tribute to dads the world over. While a mother penguin leaves her mate and newly laid egg to go and feed in the deep blue sea, the father penguin protects the egg by holding it on its feet until it hatches. Containing a new CD with a song written and sung by Sarah Weeks, Without You is a soothing narrative ballad that illuminates one of nature's rare and heartwarming role reversals. Age range 4–8 years

Cheese Oggie Cooder loves cheese so much that he carries a slice of cheese with him wherever he goes. It's not just for a snack—Oggie is an excellent charver (charving is when you chew a piece of cheese to carve it into some kind of shape). The kids at school think Oddie's charving is a little strange. But when a big TV show comes looking for people with unusual talents, Oggie is suddenly Mr. Popular. Can Oggie charve a path to fame and score an invite to the party of the year without melting under pressure? Age range 7–10 years

Honey Melody has lived in Royal, Indiana, for as long as she can remember. It's always been just her and her father, and she's okay with that. But then she overhears him calling someone Honey— and suddenly it feels like everyone in Royal has a secret. It's up to Melody and her best friend, Nick, to piece together the clues and discover why Honey is being hidden. Meanwhile, a dog named Mo arrives in Royal. He doesn't remember much from when he was a puppy...but he keeps dreaming of a girl he feels he is bound to meet someday. This girl, he's sure, will change everything. If only he knew who she was. Age range 9–12 years

Save Me a Seat (co-written with Gita Varadarajan) Joe and Ravi might be from very different places, but they're both stuck in the same place: SCHOOL. Joe's lived in the same town all his life, and was doing just fine until his best friends moved away and left him on his own. Ravi's family just moved to America from India, and he's finding it pretty hard to figure out where he fits in. Joe and Ravi don't think they have anything in common—but soon enough they have a common enemy (the biggest bully in their class) and a common mission: to take control of their lives over the course of a single crazy week. Age range 8–12 years
