

Eagle Family Turkey Shoot

Who: All Eagle students and their families

When: Thursday, November 16, 2016

Time: 5:00-7:00 PM (Book Fair until 7:30 PM)

Where: Eagle foyer, gym and cafeteria

Why: To raise money for Hurricane Maria relief as well as new PE equipment

Cost: $5 for two sets of ten shots

All families are invited to come to this fun event. You can browse the book fair in the lobby and then purchase set/s of 10 individual basketball shots (2 for $5) to take at your child's grade level basket (Pre-k-adult). Students from ages 2-kindergarten will shoot at the mini hoops in the cafeteria. Other students as well as older siblings and adults will find their grade level basket in the gym. This is a drop in event that does not need to take your entire night. Please stop by for a few minutes to help support globalgiving.com and your PE department.

-For each purchase of 10 shots students will be entered in a raffle for itunes gift cards, stop watches, splat balls, Scholastic dollars, and a mini surprise boo animal.

-Prizes for each grade level! Prizes to be drawn during school the following day.

-The class that has the most participants attend the event will earn an extra PE class.

-Top boy/girl scores in each grade level will win a basketball at school the next day.
