NEWS RELEASE

On Thursday, March 14, 2019, the Bethlehem Police Department arrested Michael E. Fredette, 63, of Glenmont, for one count of misdemeanor Stalking in the Fourth Degree. Fredette was arrested for stalking a 19 year-old, and after being advised to cease all contact with the individual.

Fredette is currently employed as a teacher by the Bethlehem Central School District. At this time there is no information that any incidents took place on school property or previously when the victim was still a student at the school. In this case Fredette engaged in an on-going course of conduct involving contact with the victim, showing up at the victim's residence, and place of employment and sending items to the victim.

The Bethlehem Police Department has worked closely with the Bethlehem Central School District in regards to this case during the investigation. The safety of the students and school community is the top priority for both the district and police. The Bethlehem Police Department is requesting that anyone with information in regards to this case contact us at 518-439-9973.
