Citing a Book

Title of Book: WHAT DO WE KNOW ABOUT THE ROMANS?
Author of Book: MIKE CORBISHLEY
Publisher: PETER BEDRICK BOOKS
Place of Publication: NEW YORK
Citing a Specialized Encyclopedia

First write down the author of the article and the article title.

- Check the beginning and end of the article for the author. If none is given, begin the citation with the article title.
Date of Publication (Copyright date)
Take most recent date.

Editor is usually on the title page.
Book with One Author or Editor

Author or editor (last name, first name): Corbishley, Mike
Title of book (underlined): What Do We Know About the Romans?
Place of publication: New York
Publisher: Peter Bedrick Books
Copyright date: 1991

Article in a Specialized Encyclopedia or Other Reference Work

Author of article (last name, first name):
Title of encyclopedia article (in quotes): “Pompeii”
Title of encyclopedia (underlined): Exploring Ancient Civilizations
Editor of encyclopedia (first and last names): Thomas McCarthy
Edition (if given): Volume number used (for multi-volume work): 8
Place of publication: New York
Publisher: Marshall Cavendish
Copyright date: 2004